A word from the Editors

We in our last year of high school prepare to leave with serious feelings of anxiety concerning our future away from our home of twelve years.

We should like to express our appreciation and gratitude to those who have given us the most valuable gift that is possible for us to receive. That gift of incalculable value is our education—though to what measure this education will benefit us remains to be seen.

Dedicated to . . .

FARRAR W. HOWARD, M.D.

We, the Senior Class, dedicate this, THE 1967 CHARLES CITIAN, to Farrar W. Howard, M.D. We appreciate greatly the many services he has rendered to the county and his whole-hearted interest in the activities of the school and the community. As Doctor and as Chairman of the School Board, his time is doubly precious, yet he seems to find time for a smile and a friendly word of encouragement for all.

*Dear Dad,
Continued to see your 'ideal'
high future in yourself
Love, E. W. Howard

MR. CHARLES W. KRAUSE
Principal

Our principal came to us from Manchester High School in Chesterfield County, where he had served as Director of Guidance since 1960. He holds a B.A. degree from the University of Richmond, a B.D. degree from Colgate Rochester Divinity School, and a M.S. in Ed. degree from the University of Richmond. His understanding of people from his experience as both a pastor and a counselor has enabled him to guide the students and faculty of Charles City High School in a very fine way this past year.

FACULTY OFF GUARD

This will solve all your problems!

Meet Old Fat and Sassy!

And THEN she said . . .

Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Owens, and Mrs. Lampkin make biscuits.

To our staff . . .

Without our staff, our school could not function. Although at times we complain, we are really grateful for the work that they do. The bus drivers begin and end our day. At times we question the beginning, but for the end we are always grateful!

The cafeteria workers, under the management of Mrs. Owens, have done their best to prepare nourishing meals to keep us going through the day.

Before and after school, Mr. Crawley and crew undertake the gigantic task of cleaning up our school.

To all these people who keep us going, we express our heartfelt thanks.

Mrs. Gerheart, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Royal and Mrs. Gunderson are ready to roll.

Mr. Crawley pauses to relax.

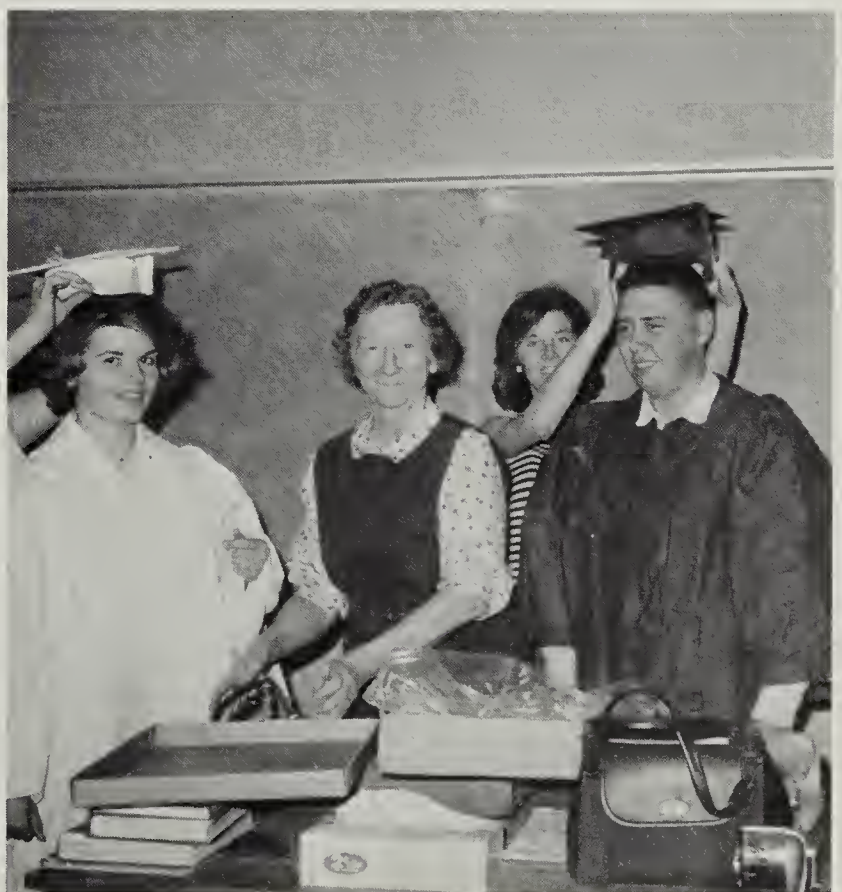

SEATED—Mrs. M. P. Richardson. STANDING—Mary Ann Pyles, SCA Representative; Brenda Waitman, Secretary-Treasurer; Lyle Browning, President; Jimmy Richardson, Vice-President.

SENIORS

Preparing for the big day.

For twelve long years we have looked forward to graduation day; and now that it is near, we face it with great expectations and with hesitation. Soon we must leave our friends and the familiar routine of the school day. We must find a new place for ourselves in the world. But we shall long remember the hard work, and the fun and excitement of our school days.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1967, being in possession of reasonably sound minds and bodies, unusual amounts of energy, insufficient amounts of dignity and realizing that our days as high school students are numbered, do hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To our parents and friends who have made our education possible, we do bequeath our love and appreciation. May they ever hold first place in our hearts.

ARTICLE II

To our school, we leave our best wishes as it continues its never-ending task of starting boys and girls along the narrow road of life, and our thanks for the many fond memories we take with us.

ARTICLE III

To our teachers, we leave peace and quiet and freedom from torment. May they enjoy it while they can.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors, we leave the challenge of a successful Senior year. We also leave them our ability to get along with Mrs. Richardson.

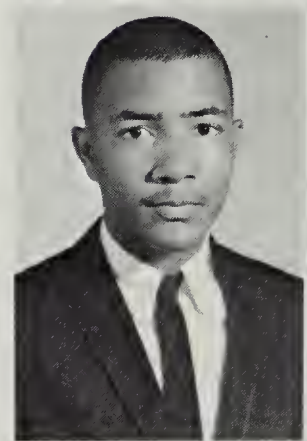

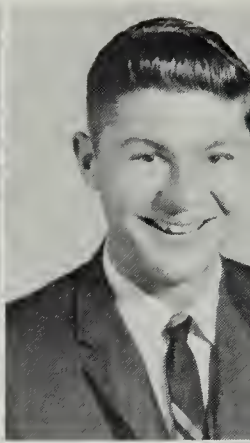

ARTICLE V

- I, Lyle Browning, will and bequeath my love of argument to Billy May.
- I, Martha Duke, will and bequeath peace and quiet to Mr. Ricks.
- I, Janet Ergle, will and bequeath my slim figure to Sarah Johnson.
- I, Billy Gross, will and bequeath my ability to get along with my teachers to Sissy Wills.
- I, Portia Jones, will and bequeath my quietness to Brenda Peterson.
- I, Susan Jones, will and bequeath my sarcasm to John Hughes.

GIRLS' STATE

Mary Ann Pyles, last year's Girls State delegate, watches as Sam Howard and Wayne Royal raise the flags.

The honor is given to the girl who is selected on the basis of her leadership ability, character, courage, honesty, scholarship, cooperation and physical fitness. The purpose of Girls State is to inform the delegates about the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship with the hope that they will return to their home schools and pass their experiences on to their fellow students.

Paper and Careers for the future

TODAY there are more than 100,000 different uses for paper . . . and the search for new uses never ends. That is why this fast-growing industry is now the fifth largest in the country . . . and why it needs trained researchers and technicians for future growth.

Our company, a pioneer kraft manufacturer, joins with other mills in sponsoring college scholarships in paper technology. It also offers scholarships for study in a subject of the student's choice. For information, write: Public Relations Department —

From the 1967 Staff . . .

Here we are, busily working on the annual, under the stern supervision of Mrs. Viar. We did not realize what it would take to turn out an annual, but we met the task head on.

The end is near and you will be receiving your 1967 CHARLES CITIAN. We sincerely hope it will reflect the long hours and energy of our sponsor and the trials and tribulations of the annual staff. May it recall fond memories of the past year.

Dear Lyle,
 It has been nice knowing you, although we have often disagreed?
 I want to wish you much success at VPI or in whatever Mary Ann
 like, before I get so around, I hope you will
 a duck been fun, and I have been, then the most I know you are ahead. I hope you don't want to get so P.O. at long. I won't say "that yours. I won't say "that cause everyone else will which you don't need it! (ha ha)
 I always remember your plucking egg picking classmate.
 Love ya
 yours besides chick

Lyle,
 By the needle you
 shall draw the thread,
 and by that which is past, see how that which is to come will be drawn on. Be not what people say you are, but be what you think you are and you are bound to many successes in the future
 your sarcastic classmate,
 Susan I.

Lyle,
 It has really
 been cold of fun knowing you through all our 12 years. I wish you all the success in your years at V.P.I. and don't get too educated
 I'm a girl of few words
 so I'll sign off for now.
 Lots of Love - Luck,
 Linda

Lyle,
 May you get
 what you want,
 and want what you get. Best of luck.
 A.C. Rue

Late sometimes - but dull, never.
Jim Moore

Your time at Charles City is coming to an end. It is my wish that you will find the place in life that will be

I want to wish you good luck at V.P.T. You will probably need more than luck. You will need help only God can give you.

Remember the fair?

Life,
School is almost over for you, but not for me. You have only a couple of weeks to go and you'll be out (free as a bird).
Some people are lucky. Best of luck to you in the future.
